To All Subscribers:

To better serve our readers, Microgram Bulletin LE (Law Enforcement Edition) will be posted on Law Enforcement Online (LEO), www.leo.gov, (criteria for membership and applications for membership can be found at www.leo.gov/membership\_criteria.pdf and www.leo.gov/usrApp.html). LEO is a free, interactive, computer-communications service provided by the FBI. It provides an Internet accessible focal point for electronic Sensitive But Unclassified (SBU) communication and information sharing for the international, federal, state, local, and tribal law enforcement agencies. LEO also supports antiterrorism, intelligence, law enforcement, criminal justice, and public safety communities worldwide. Microgram Bulletin LE will be located in the Special Interest Groups (SIGs) section of LEO. The DEA SIG is an open SIG, however you still will be required to apply for access to the SIG once you are granted LEO membership.

Current subscribers who do not meet the criteria for membership at LEO can apply for access to Microgram Bulletin LE through the Department of Justice's information exchange website (IDEA). Access to IDEA will be granted only to government and scientific professionals who have a demonstrated professional need to have access to Microgram Bulletin LE and who cannot qualify for access to www.leo.gov. If you are requesting access to Microgram Bulletin LE through IDEA, you will need to email your request to the Microgram Editor at dea-microgram-2010@mailsnare.net. For those granted access to Microgram Bulletin LE through IDEA, Microgram Bulletin LE will be located in the "DEA Microgram" folder.

The applications for access to Microgram Bulletin LE through www.leo.gov and IDEA will be processed in the order in which they are received.

Starting with the January 2010 issue, Microgram Bulletin on www.dea.gov will still contain Scheduling Updates, Safety Alerts, Selective References, Meeting Announcements, Employment Opportunities, The Journal/Textbook Collection Exchange, and Training Opportunities.
